San Diego County Crime Stoppers is joining forces with the San Diego Police Department's Traffic Investigations Unit to help identify and apprehend the person responsible for a fatal hit and run on Pacific Highway.

According to investigators, on Wednesday, October 11, 2006, 43-year-old Bryan Young was struck by a vehicle on Pacific Highway north of Taylor Street. Young was killed as a result of the injuries sustained from the accident; the suspect vehicle fled the scene. A witness described the suspect vehicle as possibly a small white SUV. The vehicle may have sustained damage to the passenger side front quarter panel along with damage to the passenger side-view mirror.

Anyone with information on the identity or location of the person responsible for this fatal hit and run is asked to call the Crime Stoppers anonymous tip line at (888) 580-TIPS. Crime Stoppers is offering up to a $1,000 reward to anyone with information that leads to the arrest of the suspect. Collect calls are accepted and callers may remain anonymous.

Media inquiries regarding the investigation should be directed to Detective Suzanne Huntington at (858) 495-7812.

Media inquiries regarding Crime Stoppers should be directed to Officer Jim Johnson at (619) 531-1500 or Deputy Adriana Uribe at (619) 531-1547.

For information leading to an arrest, you could receive up to a $1,000 reward and remain anonymous. The qualification of any person(s) for the reward and the amount of the reward for any person(s) so qualifying will be determined by San Diego County Crime Stoppers, Inc, in its sole discretion. The amount of all rewards given shall not exceed $1,000. Information must be received on the tip line, (888) 580-TIPS.
